

Respect 911 Worksheet

Use this sheet to develop a three-minute skit. You have 10 minutes to get ready.

What respectful action do you want to encourage in the skit?

What setting or situation do you want to use to make the point?

What characters do you need in order to show a problem and a solution?

How will you set the scene?

What will characters say and do that shows the problem?

What will characters say and do to offer a solution?

What message do you want the audience to remember?

How will you end the skit?