Discuss

Use these questions to start meaningful conversations about good citizenship.

- How did Sarah demonstrate responsible citizenship?
- How does justice relate to good citizenship?
- Who could you honor in the community for all they do for others?

Activity

- Create a family tree activity where students research and share stories of family members who have positively impacted their communities, highlighting acts of kindness, leadership, or advocacy.
- Collaborate on a creative project, such as writing letters to elected officials advocating for a cause, creating artwork inspired by themes of citizenship, or composing songs or poems expressing messages of hope and unity to promote family bonding and shared values of citizenship and empathy.
