Use these questions to start meaningful conversations about mentorship.

- How can we support each other in learning new things?
- Why is it important to both teach and learn from each other in our family?
- Why is it important to encourage each other to learn new skills?

Activity

- Each family member chooses one small skill or talent they can teach the rest of the family.
- Hold a show-and-tell night where each person demonstrates their skill and mentors the family members to learn it.
- Ensure every family member has a chance to highlight their skill and mentor others.
