Discuss

Use these questions to start meaningful conversations about civility.

- When do disagreements happen in families?
- Why is it important to express feelings without blaming others?
- How can family members model civility for one another?

Activity

- As a family, practice turning You-statements into I-statements.
- Take turns sharing examples such as “You never help with chores” or “You always interrupt me,” then work together to rewrite them using respectful, civil language.
- Discuss how changing the wording can change the entire conversation.
