Discuss

Use these questions to start meaningful conversations about fairness.

- When is being fair difficult?
- Why is honesty important when making fair decisions?
- How does fairness help people trust one another?

Activity

- As a family, discuss situations where no one would know if someone broke a rule or took a short-cut. Examples might include finishing chores, following household rules, playing a game, completing homework, etc.
- Have each family member share how they would make the fair choice and why fairness matters even when nobody is watching.
- Conclude by discussing how honesty and fairness work together to build trust within a family.
